Duluth Police arrest 26 year old Duluth man for robbery of Holiday Stationstore.

This morning at 1:20 AM, Duluth Police responded to the Holiday Stationstore at 2432 London Road on the report that it had just been robbed by a male suspect who displayed a knife. The suspect was last seen crossing London Road on foot. The suspect was described as a white male in his early twenties, wearing a dark jacket and hat, and khaki pants.

At 3:30 AM, police received information that the suspect in the Holiday robbery was at a residence in the 1900 block of East Second Street. Officers went to the residence and located Jacob David Hanninen, age 26, of Duluth. Officers also found evidence at the residence that linked Hanninen to the robbery. Hanninen was taken into custody without incident.

Hanninen was taken to the St. Louis County Jail where he is being held pending formal charges for First Degree Aggravated Robbery.

The investigation into the incident is ongoing and has been turned over to the Duluth Police Department Violent Crime Unit. No further information is available at this time.
